At Knox Wellness, we take an integrative approach to wellness. We practice cutting edge Integrative and Functional Medicine offering natural solutions to many health concerns such as bio-identical hormone replacement, integrative cancer support, autism support, mold illness, Lyme treatment, weight management, thyroid care, gut health, autoimmune disease, diabetes, inflammatory disorders, and more. We understand that helping you feel better does not always have just one solution. Our integrated approach allows us to restore natural health and balance back to your body. Additionally, we offer complementary therapies such as IV vitamin infusions, ozone therapy, full nutraceuticals, and more to get you feeling your best.
